Project Management

Project name: Development of UniSAST: A Web-based Platform Integrating Open-source SAST Tools

This tool is built on a Web-based platform, allowing users to upload source code in .ZIP file format to scan for vulnerabilities in code files, with the function of Debug vulnerabilities using the Ollama model that we have trained and loaded with datasets, so the tool has solved about 98% of vulnerabilities for users. And the tool is still in the process of further development in more detailed vulnerability detection.
